Letters to the Editor

Virtues

Honesty. Truth. Trust. Faith. Belief. Doctrine. Justice.

Are these things engraved in our minds?

HONESTY - free of deceit or untruthfulness, sincere - morally correct or virtuous.

TRUTH - is the quality or state of being true. That which is true or in accordance with fact or reality.

TRUST - is a firm belief in the reliability, truth, ability or strength of someone or something.

FAITH - is complete trust or confidence in someone or something: Like restores one's faith in politicians, or strong belief in God or in the doctrines of a religion, based on spiritual apprehension rather than proof.

BELIEF - an acceptance that a statement is true or that something exists - trust, faith, confidence in someone or something.

DOCTRINE - a belief or set of beliefs held or taught by a church.

JUSTICE - just behavior or treatment - the quality of being fair or reasonable.

If we are not honest, especially with ourselves, don't we lose a bit of our innocence?

If we do not tell the truth, don't we lose the trust of others?

If we lose the trust of others, how can we regain that trust?

If we lose faith in someone or something, don't we lose trust and confidence, also?

If we don't have belief in someone or something, don't we also lose trust, faith, and confidence?

Doesn't church doctrine include both the teachings of religion which God has made, and the laws of guidance which man has made?

Doesn't justice mean equal or treatment for all the same?
